

2nd Berlin Bat Meeting: Bat Biology and Infectious Diseases 19.-21.2.2010, Berlin Germany

Plenary talks:

- Emerging infectious diseases in bats (Dr. Hume Field, Australia)
- Bats and rabies (Prof. Dr. Tony Fooks, U.K.)
- Bats and mycoses: The white-nose syndrome (Dr. David Blehert, U.S.A)
- Bats and parasites (Dr. Carl Dick, U.S.A)
- Bat diseases and conservation (Prof. Dr. Paul Racey, U.K.)

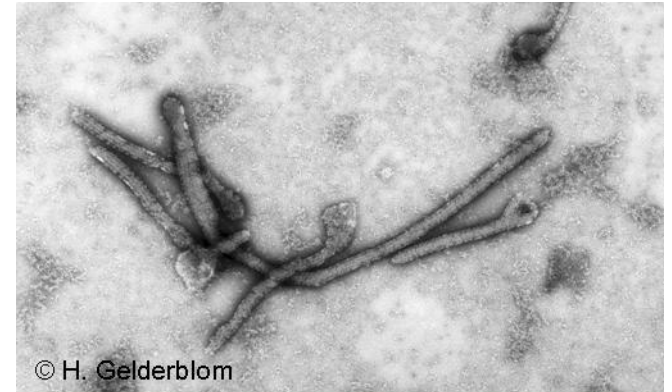

Sessions:

- Emerging infectious diseases in bats (Session I: Dr. Wang, Australia; Session II: Prof. Dr. Wood, U.K.)
- Bats and rabies (Dr. Fooks, U.K.; Dr. Müller, Germany)
- Bats and parasites (Prof. Dr. Kalko, Germany; Prof. Dr. Palmeirim, Portugal)

- Bat immunology / Bat immunogenetics (Prof. Dr. McCracken, U.S.A.; Prof. Dr. Sommer, Germany)
- Bat diseases and conservation (Dr. Jones, U.K.)
- Bat diseases and the public
- Round-table discussion: Current challenges and future perspectives (Prof. Dr. Racey, U.K.)

All participants of the 2nd Berlin Bat Meeting are more than welcome to contribute to these sessions with posters, oral presentations or discussions.

In case you have questions, please contact us at 2ndBBM2010@izw.berlin.de or visit our web page at: www.izw-berlin.de

© H. Gelderblom

2nd Berlin Bat Meeting:

Bat Biology and Infectious Diseases

19.-21.2.2010, Berlin, Germany

© A. Hicks

2nd Berlin Bat Meeting: Bat Biology and Infectious Diseases
19.-21.2.2010, Berlin, Germany

Join the Pre-Symposium
Workshop on
Care and medical management of captive bats
Friday, 19.2. 2pm – 5pm

This workshop will cover the following topics:

- Handling, housing and feeding of orphaned bats
- Handling, housing and feeding of grounded bats
- Medical treatment of bats
- Public awareness and conservation
- Release of hand-reared bats

Workshop organizers:

Jeroen van der Kooij
(Norwegian Zoological Society)

Dr. Kerstin Müller
(Small Animal Clinic, Dept. of Veterinary Medicine, Freie
Universität Berlin)

To participate in the workshop,
please register for the 2nd Berlin
Bat Meeting at www.izw-berlin.de

Participants are eligible to submit abstracts for oral or poster presentation for this workshop.

Deadline for early-bird registration and abstract submission is 1st of November 2009

Please visit our web page for details regarding

- Registration fees
- Formatting guidelines
- Travel grants
- Student prizes
- Accommodation
- Conference site

In case you have questions, please contact us at

2ndBBM2010@izw-berlin.de

PD Dr. Christian C. Voigt
Dr. Gudrun Wibbelt
Leibniz Institute for Zoo and Wildlife Research

Workshop "Care and medical management of captive bats"

19.2.2010, Berlin, Germany

© J. van der Kooij